

KEVIN RISCASSI, P.S.M.
Professional Surveyor & Mapper

Licensing & Registration

Florida Professional Surveyor & Mapper, License No. LS6433

MOT Certification

Education/Training

B.A. Economics (1992),
Trinity College

Professional Affiliations

Florida Surveying and Mapping Society

Kevin joined Johnson Engineering in 2001 and his surveying experience includes control, boundary, topographic, route, hydrographic, construction, GPS, elevation certificates and mortgage surveys. He has years of field experience as a survey crew chief, as well as a survey technician and has been licensed as a P.S.M since 2003. Kevin serves as project manager on hydrographic, boundary, design and construction projects.

Relevant Experience

Control and Boundary Projects

- ↪ Aerial control, design and right of way survey for Florida Power and Light on a 54-mile transmission line in Lee and Collier Counties
- ↪ S.R. 31 aerial control survey, design and right of way survey for Lee and Charlotte Counties
- ↪ GPS control survey for S.S.R. Incorporated to establish horizontal and vertical control of Naples Bay for hydrographic survey to provide the South Florida Water Management District
- ↪ County line boundary survey on Cayo Pelau in Charlotte Harbor for Lee County

Construction Projects

- ↪ Construction staking at the Gulf Coast Town Center Mall for C.B.L and E.M.J
- ↪ Construction staking at Florida Gulf Coast University on new student housing project and the Whitaker School of Engineering project
- ↪ Construction staking for Bonita Bay Group, Taylor Woodrow and Centex Developers on residential and golf community subdivision

Hydrographic Projects

- ↪ Hydrographic survey for U.S. Navy Turning Basin at Key West Bight
- ↪ Hydrographic control survey and beach profiles for Collier County at Clam Pass
- ↪ Hydrographic surveys for Bonita Bay Group, Taylor Woodrow and Centex Developers on residential and golf community subdivision lakes

: